

NEWS OF THE DAY IN LOCAL SOCIETY

Items of Interest Gleaned in Cabinet, Diplomatic, and Unofficial Circles.

Mrs. Hay, wife of the Secretary of State, will leave the family home on Lake Sunapee in a few days, to visit relatives in Cleveland before coming to Washington for the winter. It is understood that she will take no part in social life this winter.

Mrs. Root and her daughter and sons will remain abroad all winter, and for that reason the Secretary of War has taken apartments at the Arlington.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne are occupying the H Street annex of the Arlington, which they have leased for the winter. Miss Louise Jones joined Mrs. Payne shortly after her arrival here.

Miss Wilson, daughter of the Secretary of Agriculture, has returned from a visit to her home in Iowa.

Among the Diplomats.

The Crown Prince of Siam is expected to arrive in Washington October 11 and with his suite will occupy apartments at the Arlington. As to what extent he will be entertained by the President will depend upon the condition of the White House at that time, but the hospitalities arranged in his honor so far include a dinner to be given on the evening after his arrival, by the Siamese minister and another later by Secretary Hay.

British Embassy Renovation.

From present appearances the British embassy will not be ready for occupancy for a month or more. The ballroom serves as a storage for the furnishings of all the other rooms on the first floor, the halls are blocked with ladders, and everywhere are workmen covering the dark woodwork with white paint and giving the walls delicate tints which lend an air of cheerfulness to the heretofore somber interior. The house is to be fitted with electric lights. The ponderous bronze gas lamps at the foot of the staircase are to be removed.

When the portrait of Queen Victoria is replaced on the wall of the first landing it will have for its background a wall of light green instead of mulberry red.

The new ambassador and Lady Herbert are en route for this country, but as they will make a visit of some length in New York and Newport visiting the Lady Herbert's relatives, there is no doubt about the embassy being in readiness to receive them by the time they are ready to come.

Owing to the British custom of sending a permanent secretary to an embassy with a new ambassador, Mr. Raikes, the present first secretary and charge d'affaires, will soon be recalled to London. His rank entitles him to higher service than that of permanent secretary.

Mr. Percy Wyndham has returned from his summer vacation.

At the French Embassy.

The French ambassador, M. Cambon, is expected to make a short visit to Washington in about a month, but his successor, M. Jusserand, will not come to this country before December. M. Boeuf, the chancellor of the embassy, has been abroad all summer and will accompany M. Jusserand to his new post.

Captain and Mme. Vignal, who returned from France a month ago and have been visiting the northern coast resorts, have reopened their home in Washington.

Lieutenant Commander de Faramond, naval attaché of the French embassy, has returned from Paris.

Senor Aspizoz Back From Mexico.

The Mexican ambassador, accompanied by his two daughters and son, arrived from Mexico on September 30. Senor Aspizoz will extend her visit to her native land until quite late in the autumn.

The Japanese minister and Mme. Takahira have returned to the city.

M. von Callenberg, first secretary of the Austrian legation, has returned with his wife from their summer visit to Europe.

Army and Navy Chat.

Mrs. B. A. Mower, widow of Gen. J. A. Mower, U. S. A., has returned from Connecticut and will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. E. R. McComas, at 3481 Morgan Avenue, Holmead Manor.

Captain Gilmore, U. S. N., has closed his cottage at Conant, Newport, and returned to Washington.

Major and Mrs. A. Howitt Nickerson are at the Magnolia for the season.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Stevens T. Norvell have cards out for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Norvell, to Capt. John Elliott Hunt, U. S. A., Thursday, October 16, at St. Margaret's Church.

Society Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tleston Granger have opened their Connecticut Avenue home for the winter.

Mrs. N. S. Lincoln and Miss Natalie Lincoln have returned to the city.

Owing to the improvements being made at St. John's Church, the marriage of Miss Anne Ingraham and Mr. Hugh J. Jewett will take place at the Church of the Epiphany at 1 o'clock on Wednesday, October 15.

The ceremony will be followed by a breakfast for relatives and personal friends at 1428 K Street, which N. Gibbs Ingraham has taken for the autumn season.

Miss Margaret Meredith, daughter of Capt. William Meredith, chief of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, departed yesterday evening for Chicago for an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. C. H. Burras.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. George M. Bond, wife of the agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, will shortly return to the city from her summer home at Laurel.

Mrs. W. H. Stowers and her daughter, Miss Bonnell, of Houston, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Dr. Miles and daughter, Mrs. C. S. Denham, 2414 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Mr. William Scully, who has been occupying the home of Mrs. John A. Logan, on Calumet Place, will shortly move to his recently purchased home on Sixteenth Street.

Miss Nannie Leiter, who has been spending the summer in Europe, has sailed for New York on the Teutonic.

Mrs. Ogden Goelet and Miss May Goelet, her daughter, will spend a portion of the coming winter in this city.

The engagement of Miss Rosebud Harrington to Capt. N. H. Hall, of the Marine Corps, has been announced. Captain Hall was at the siege of Pekin, and is under orders to sail for Panama.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Chiswell have returned to their home, 902 M Street northwest.

The Japanese Minister and Mme. Takahira have arrived in the city.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of Miss Alice Norvell to Capt. John Elliott Hunt, U. S. A., Thursday, October 16.

Mrs. N. S. Lincoln and Miss Natalie Lincoln have returned to the city and are at their H Street home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Fridenberg and family have located at the St. Louis Hotel for the winter.

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Frank Wheaton have reopened their beautiful home, 2433 Columbia Road, after a summer at the seaside.

Rev. Father Shandella, of Georgetown University, has returned after spending part of the summer in Virginia.

DEATH DUE TO ACCIDENT.

Coroner Nevitt yesterday morning held an inquest over the remains of Harvey Decator, the negro who died in the Fifth precinct patrol wagon Thursday afternoon, as the result of injuries sustained by falling down a coal chute in the Washington navy yard. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

BISHOP POTTER WEDS MRS. A. C. CLARK TODAY

House and Church at Cooperstown, N. Y., Lavishly Decorated With Flowers.

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 3.—At noon tomorrow Mrs. Alfred Cornish Clark and the Rt. Rev. Henry Codman Potter will be wedded in Christ Church, this village. Guests have been arriving since last evening, and the wedding will be the fashionable event of the whole year in Cooperstown. Mrs. Clark has been Cooperstown's benefactress for years, and she is known by almost every man, woman and child in the place, and all are interested in the event which takes place tomorrow.

All is practically ready for the wedding. All day florists and decorators have been busy at Fernleigh and at Christ Church. The noon train brought a carload of palms and ferns, which were taken this afternoon to the church. These, with white flowers and similar, are being used in profusion. The decorating of the church will not be completed until tomorrow morning.

The arrival at a late hour last night of Bishop Potter came as a surprise to even intimate friends of the family. He traveled from Utica to Richfield Springs by special train and drove six miles over muddy country roads to the head of Lake Otsego. He found his fiancée waiting for him, and together they came to Cooperstown aboard the Clark yacht Narramattah.

The out-of-town guests to the wedding are stopping at the Hotel Fenimore. This afternoon several of them enjoyed a trolley ride with F. Ambrose Clark and his bride, Mr. Clark occupying the driver's seat. At the same time the bishop and his fiancée, looking very happy, were driving alone in Mrs. Clark's phaeton.

THE DOLPHIN ARRIVES.

The United States naval yacht Dolphin arrived in Washington yesterday. The Dolphin is the yacht of the President, and has been stationed at Oyster Bay practically all of the summer.

GOSSIP HEARD IN HOTEL CORRIDORS

America Leads the World.

Delegate Mark Smith of Arizona has just returned from an extended European trip. He spent most of his time at Carlsbad, where he took the treatment for his health.

"While on the other side," said Delegate Smith, at the Barton last evening, "I visited England, France, Austria, Belgium, and Germany, and I want to say that there is not a country anywhere that can compare with the United States. We are ahead of them in everything. I care not what it is. A trip abroad will impress you with the greatness of the United States. There is no denying that we are at the head of the procession, and increasing our lead all the time."

Mr. Smith was not a candidate for re-nomination. Before the Fifty-eighth Congress meets, he said, the Territory of Arizona will have been admitted into the Union as a State, the House having passed the bill last session and the Senate having agreed to vote on it early next December. There is every reason to believe the bill will be passed. In the event of the Arizona Legislature being Democratic Mr. Smith will be a candidate for the Senate.

To Honor Schley.

Mr. George M. Bailey, the Washington correspondent of the "Galveston and Dallas (Texas) News," has returned from a three months' sojourn in Dallas, where he put in his time doing editorial work on the "News."

"The people of Dallas," said Mr. Bailey, in the lobby of the Ebbitt last evening, "are making preparations to give Admiral and Mrs. Schley a royal reception during their stay in the city from October 17 to 21. During these five days the admiral and Mrs. Schley are to be the guests of Dallas. A committee from Dallas will meet the admiral and his wife at Fort Smith on October 17 and accompany the distinguished guests in a special train to Dallas. On the next morning 50,000 school children from north Texas will pass in review before Admiral Schley, and in the afternoon and evening he will be entertained by the Knights Templars of Texas, presided over by Grand Master H. B. Stoddard, of the supreme jurisdiction of that order. On Monday, October 20, there will be a military parade and a presentation to the admiral of a magnificent loving cup, costing $1,500. The mayor of Dallas will present the cup. In the evening Admiral and Mrs. Schley will be given a banquet that will be attended by a thousand of the leading citizens of the State. From Dallas Admiral and Mrs. Schley will visit Waco, Austin, San Antonio, and Galveston, from which latter place he will take the steamer to New York. In Austin the admiral and his wife will be entertained by Governor Sayers.

"Next to Admiral and Mrs. Schley's visit Texas is interested in sending to the next House of Representatives sixteen Democrats."

Plenty of Soft Coal.

"The coal strike does not affect my district," said Representative Pearce of Maryland, at the Raleigh yesterday, "as we have plenty of soft coal and wood. I do not believe the coal strike will have any serious political effect. The campaign in my district is progressing nicely; my meetings are well attended, and the voters appear much interested. The country is prosperous and the people are satisfied, and with these conditions it is easy enough to see that the next House will be Republican."

Tobacco Planter Optimistic.

The largest tobacco planter in the world is Col. John S. Cunningham, of Person county, North Carolina, who is at the Metropolitan. He is also president of the North Carolina Tobacco Association. Despite the fact that the great tobacco interests have merged their interests, Colonel Cunningham takes an optimistic view of the tobacco situation. In his opinion the trust cannot afford to lower the price of tobacco.

The Type of True Gentleman the World Over

Tynan's Robert Emmet Is Humanity's Exemplar, as Was the Patriot Himself.

This picture is the fragment of one of the strong scenes of the novel. The figures are Michael Devere, the gentleman-farmer, who led the boys in the Wicklow Mountains, and Robert Emmet, the young aristocrat, who was to die in a few weeks, loving even those who had betrayed him.
